The life within

With every step life gets simpler !

The combination of an upscale neighbourhood with golf course, residences, serviced apartments designed to let you enjoy an unmatched way of life.

No more waking up early and hurrying your kids through breakfast to reach school. Leave behind the worries of getting stuck in traffic for your bank work. With schools, hospitals, workplaces, convenience stores and a five star hotel life, within UGCC gets finer every day.

Explore. Indulge. Give in.

Home turf

An international standard 9 hole, 70 acre golf course designed by reputed golf designer Phil Ryan of Pacific Coast Design, Australia.

The combination of shapes, features and hazards, with the ability to position the hole in a variety of locations, varies each hole in both difficulty and strategy, ensuring your game will never be mundane.

Watch the ball sway away in the starlit sky along the wavering shadows of the fairways. With state-of-the-art floodlights, night golfing is just another aspect of club class living.

An international golf academy and development centre, coupled with cutting edge technology and curriculum, to give you the competitive edge. Equipped with a dedicated digital coaching system to provide the avid golfer a desirable experience.

Live your game.

THE DECK

Unravel the treasures of nature at the floating deck, as you sip your favourite bubbly, under the azure sky. Listen to the murmur of water, creating an endless rhythm amidst the melodies of chirping birds.

A lounge, a conference room, a café, a bar – the various facets of The Deck unveiled.

Watch your partner tee off on the 18 hole reversible golf course as you recline and immerse in tranquility.

Let the aftertaste of calmness linger on - just a little bit longer. The perfect place to unwind, over a cup of brew with friends and family.

An outdoor experience like never before.

To compliment the grandeur and style of UGCC, the Deck is adorned with a lounge where you can spend either a lazy afternoon with your family or meet with clients to discuss your next big business plan.

To add to your conversations let our chefs toss up handpicked delicacies, to suit your discerning palate.

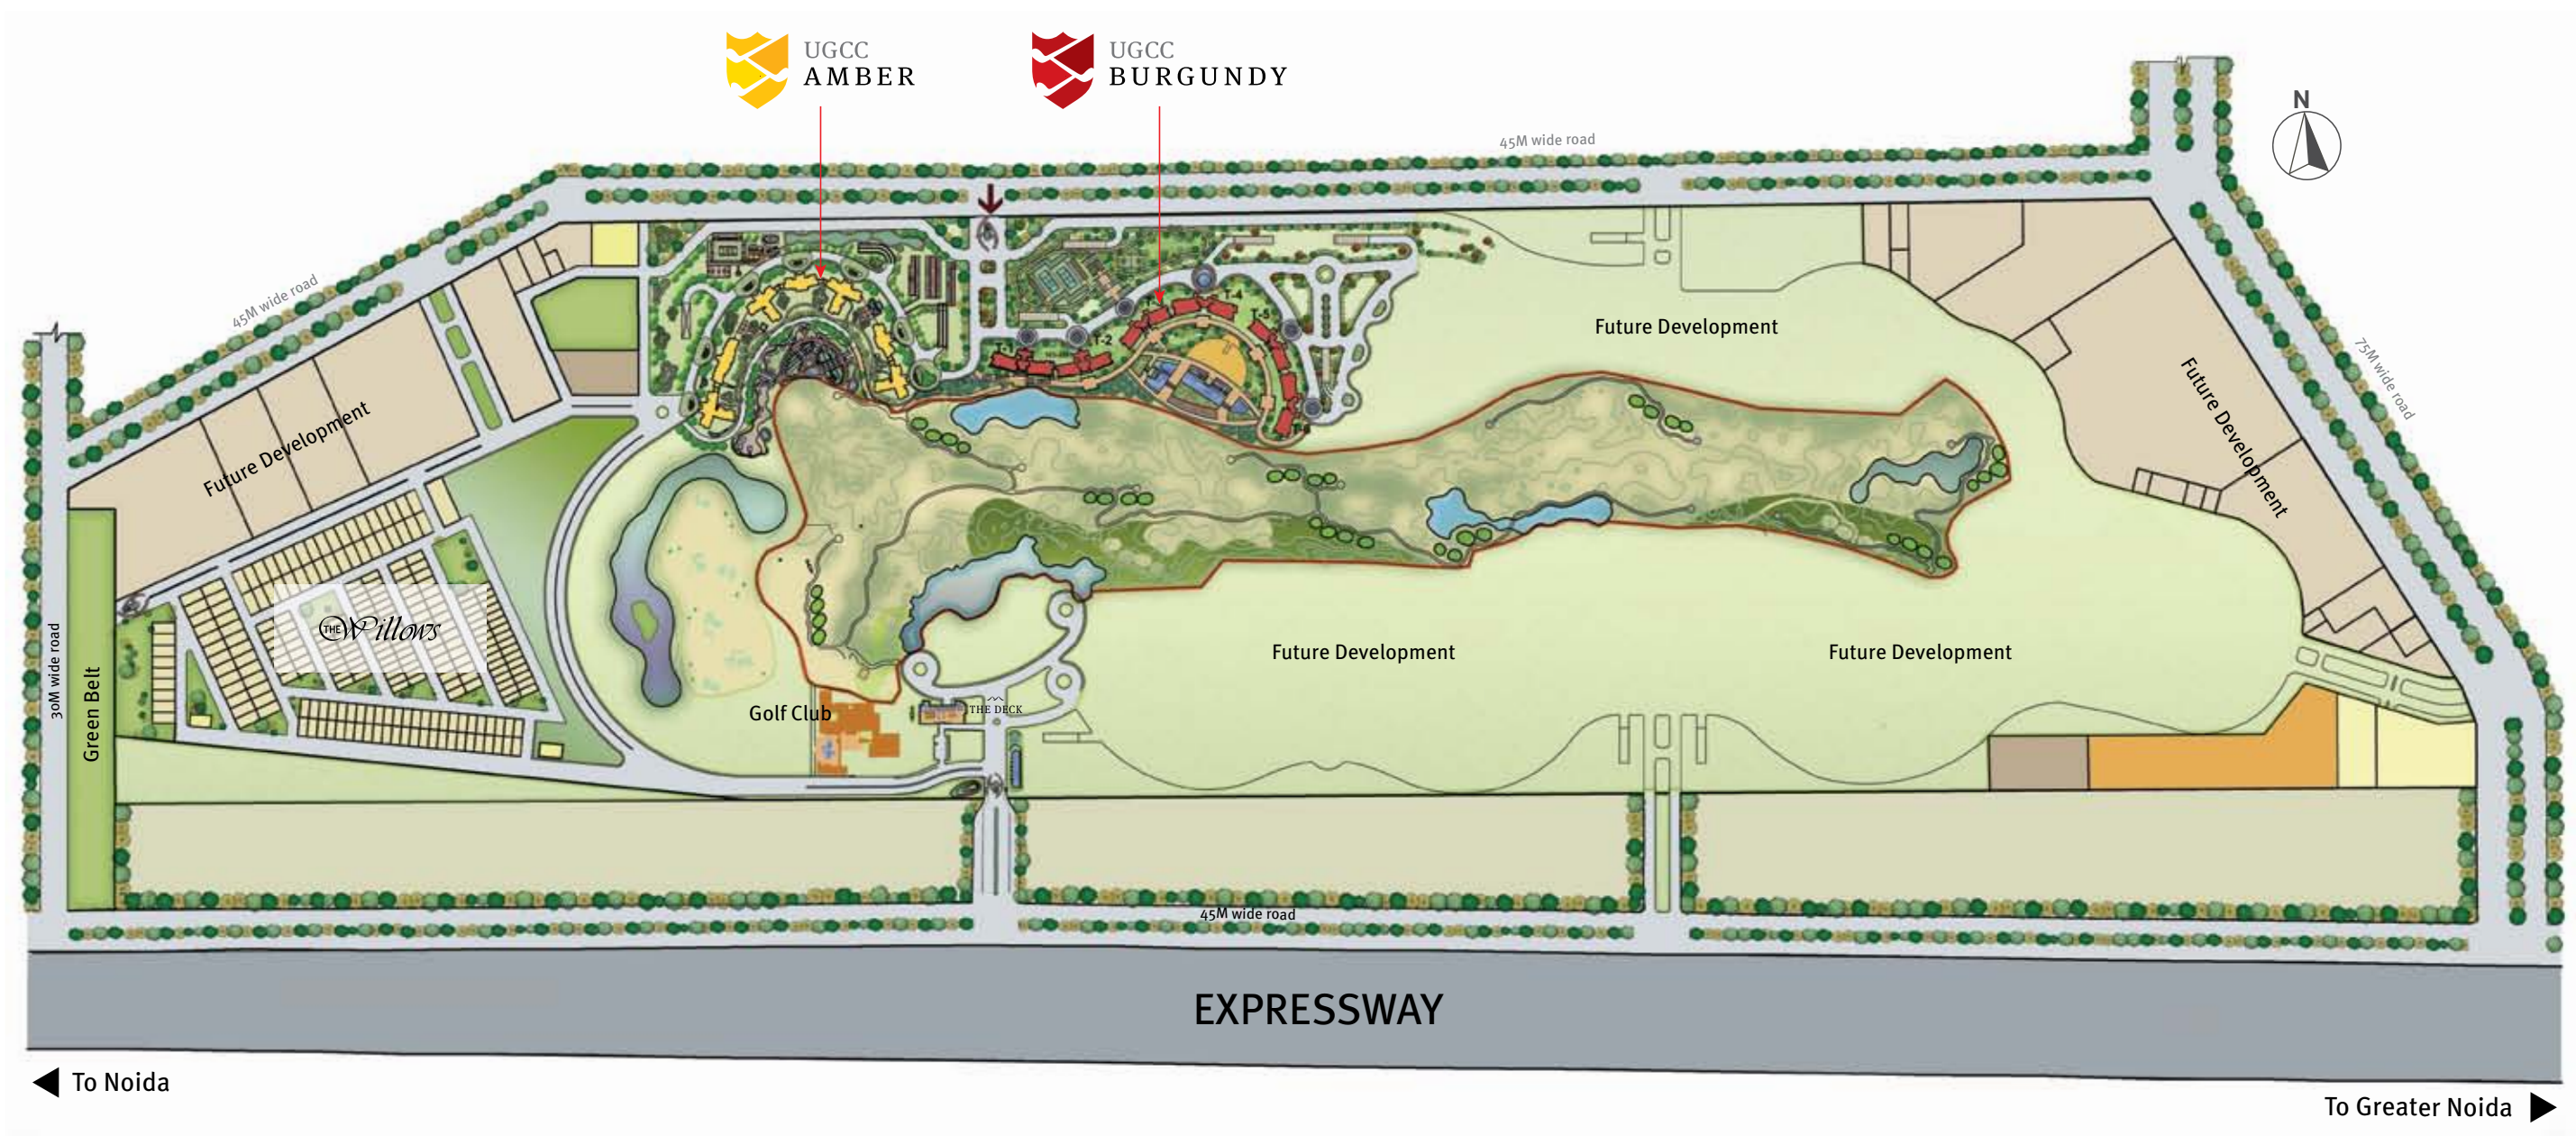

UGCC offers two architectural marvels for the connoisseurs of good living, with luxuriously designed tower lobbies and outdoor, planned walkways, jogging and cycling tracks, leisure and recreational facilities that complete the experience of club class living.

Stimulating conversations begin at home.

UGCC will tie up with various renowned academies to create state-of-the-art indoor cricket, soccer, archery shooting and tennis facilities.

Ride in with pride

Stables with both pony and full bred horses – the life at UGCC, comes with an equestrian academy catering to beginners and professional riders alike.

Within the green acres

As you tread through the gates, you are ushered into a world of utmost perfection. Clear blue skies above and soft greens beneath – the serene environs welcome you with open arms. The picturesque landscape adorned with various masterpieces never fails to enthrall you.

The entrance to UGCC is admirably designed as a grand plaza. The meandering green bands passing through various towers create magic and captivate you.

The road home is lined with exotic foliage and exquisite water features. Every tower entrance greets you with an especially commissioned art piece. Each phase is designed in a series of unique clusters to allow you spectacular view of the golf course.

Especially designed external spaces invite you to a relaxed sit-out around the cabanas and sparkling pools.

Always on-guard

A secured environ where you can let your kids wander and let them enjoy every aspect of growing up. A piece of space which gives you complete peace of mind. Top of the line hi-tech security systems, to assure you a sound sleep.

Architects

Since 1975, Callison’s collaborative relationship with Nordstrom has delivered distinct shopping experiences in more than 155 new and remodeled stores. Callison’s integration with Nordstrom’s store planning team permits a high level of detail in every design phase, while also enabling efficient processes. Callison collaborated with the Starwood Design Group to further refine the emerging W brand and designed a modern high-rise that reflects the personality of place and the sophistication of the W style.

Callison’s innovative plan for FlatIron Crossing launched a new retail destination model, combining a two-level enclosed mall and an open-air town center. The Pearl – Qatar, a $2.5 billion island community has won them accolades. Designed as the Riviera of the Middle East, Porto Arabia features a waterfront boardwalk with retail and restaurants, multi-family residential housing and entertainment activities.
