Rejuvenate

Any nature home - modest or luxurious, means good ambience: fresh air, sprawling greens, scenic landscapes, serene climate or abundant flora and fauna. All these add to the overall quality of life. The mere thought of such an environment is rejuvenating enough. At Retreat Terraces, you'll experience such harmonious blend of modernity and nature.

Recreate

It's a prerequisite to building bonds. Many hopes and expectations - especially those of your family - rest on the choice of a Nature homes. Today, there's hardly any room for children to explore or enjoy the outdoors - least of all a dedicated area for the families to sit together and reminisce "the good old times".

Reconnect

One of the components of urban chaos is commuting time between home and places. This kills quality time which could well have been utilised by spending it with loved ones. Retreat Terraces has considerably reduced this 'negative' space created by sheer distances with it's superb connectivity.

Rejoice

In the pursuit of the materialistic, today's hectic and stressful existence has taken away the joy of living a healthy life. A healthy body helps overcome the daily stress we subject ourselves to, thereby improving the quality of life. Retreat Terraces has created such zones that brings back the positive energy in you, After all health is wealth.

Retreat yourself

We have thoughtfully created homes keeping the specific needs of a family in mind. With the best utilisation of space for everyone. Each space is personal and cultivates a sense of belonging. And says something about yourself.

Presenting

RETREAT
TERRACES
BY MADHUSUDAN GROUP

Retreat Terraces by Madhusudan group, a collection of 2 and 3 bhk row houses @ karjat murbad highway your next weekend home destination situated conveniently for easy commuting, these luxury Row Houses are for those who seek solace from the rush of the city. With private gardens, lavish terrace, and much more to offer. A unique project of row House, Reterat Terrace is set amidst the tranquillity of nature.

Conveniences all around

A home is incomplete without a community to belong to man being a social animal, yearns to be a part of a neighbourhood and interact with other co-habitants. There must be 'common' spaces where such networking can take place. Retreat Terraces ensures there's plentiful opportunity to make your life more convenient and easy.

Relive

When we planned Retreat Terraces, we incorporated human use of space and its effect on behaviour, communication and social interaction. We were convinced that directly or indirectly, space is the most important aspect that determines quality of life.

In view of the above we, at Retreat Terraces, were determined to fill the missing positive spaces in peoples' lives. Our team then identified such spaces and meticulously set out to make sure we provided them to our prospective buyers.
