Villaments at Attibele

ARTHA
Citrine

Artha Citrine

Citrine, also known as Gold Topaz is a member of the large quartz family of gemstones. Citrine looks rich but is actually quite affordable. Much like Artha Citrine Villaments - Elegance and Splendor for Less!

The Element

In element, Artha Citrine is carefully carved and combines aesthetics and design in a gated community. Nestled in lush greenery of over 6 acres and strategically located at Attibele - Anekal Road, the new development hub of Bangalore.

Intricately designed and carved in duplex style, the villaments come in a range of sizes to fit your profile and needs.

Ofcourse we have set the villaments, amidst scenic landscapes and a range of amenities so you can live the lifestyle your heart desires.

The images are architects' perspective and are illustrative. The developer reserves the rights to modify at their discretion. Images may contain certain inclusions that are provided solely for the purpose of design inspiration & may not be part of the final product.

The Benefits

The legend has it that Citrine carries the healing properties of the Sun. Spreading light and energy, it motivates you into taking action and brings optimism and cheerfulness. Artha Citrine imbibes the same qualities and benefits in giving you a lifestyle that is joyous, positive and sunny.

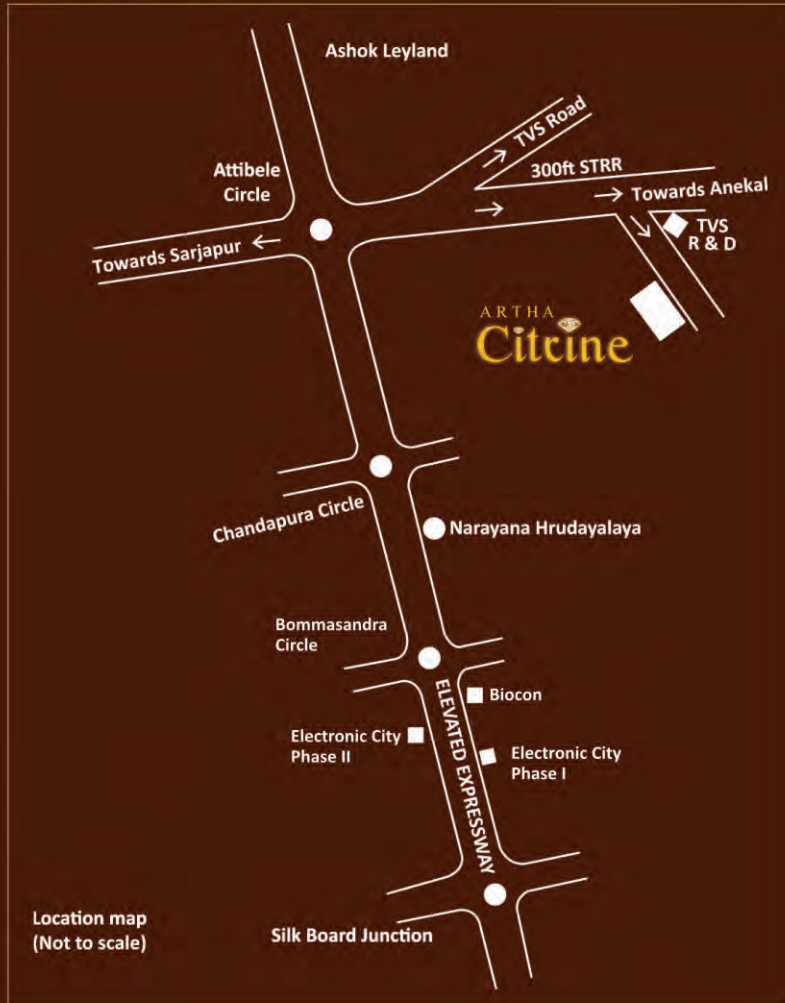

You can take a dip in the swimming pool or unwind at the club house. You could stretch your muscles at the Yoga Meditation Hall while your kids frolic in the children's play area. You could play a game of table tennis or celebrate your special occasions at the Party Hall. And enjoy complete peace of mind with 24x7 security and water supply.
