envisaging better lifestyles

Traditionally real estate developers are known to churn out projects by themselves and strive ahead to take the best opportunity of their position. But what happens when two biggies in real estate merge. It might work out like this magical project- Casa Woodstock, brought together by real estate giant The Uppal Group and White House Infra City Pvt. Ltd., a trusted name in the industry.

Since 1989 The Uppal Group has carved a significant niche for itself in the real estate industry. Uppal's appeal lies in its artistic splendour and luxurious comfort making it the most preferred choice for all its customers. The wide spectrum of its expertise in real estate has extended to various sectors. Today, it has become synonymous with architectural brilliance and innovation with an essence of quality.

White House Infra City Pvt. Ltd. has been in realty business and construction for the past 8 years. It has successfully completed various commercial and residential projects of repute. The organization totally focuses on the quality of construction and in the integrity of commitment to their customers. At White House, great emphasis is laid on the aesthetics to ensure that all of their projects are architecturally pleasing. Its fervor for innovation has propelled the organization to achieve benchmarks of architectural excellence in the real estate industry.
