GREATER NOIDA - REINVENTING THE PRESENT

Gearing up for the envisioned breakthrough

Greater Noida is anticipated to be the next big thing in NCR. With its nick names, such as IT hub, commercial hub, education hub and the upcoming humongous schemes of development, it is the most desirable location to settle for a lifetime and you could expect nothing less than an international standard lifestyle.

Master plan of development

Yamuna Expressway is getting all the eye balls with gigantic companies ranging from Patanjali, Ducati, OPPO, NIIT, Haldiram's, etc., planning to set up manufacturing units. It will provide immense employment opportunities in the near future. Industrial investment taking place in Greater Noida is now over Rs. 10,000 crore.

THE BUDDING EXTENSION OF DELHI NCR

Greater Noida is the green rendition of NCR with well-planned neighbourhood. Very soon, Greater Noida will have the second International Airport of NCR at Jewar, and a metro rail network connecting Greater Noida and Noida to Delhi NCR; making it easier than ever to travel across the cities.

The construction of the airport will begin before 2019 general elections. This will be a boon for the people living in Greater Noida. The foundation stone will be laid this Diwali, marking the beginning of a futuristic neighbourhood. Situated near the upcoming airport, Ajnara Panorama poses as the best choice for housing.

The fast paced development, as currently witnessed is all poised to make Greater Noida the city of future. The UP government plans to gift Greater Noida several projects including a medical university at a cost of Rs. 500 crores.

The Yamuna Expressway Authority takes it to the next level by announcing the decision to develop over 6,000 hectares for two hi-tech cities, an industrial township and a heritage city, adjacent to the cities of Agra, Hathras and Mathura.

EXPRESSWAY TO THE FUTURE

Yamuna Expressway is India's longest six-lane expressway connecting Greater Noida to Agra. This expressway is extended from Agra to Lucknow. Stretched across 165 Kilometres, it consists of world class quality roads with efficient emergency services. Greater Noida is destined to witness the Jewar airport come to life soon enough. It will boost the overall economic development of the region. In the purview of FDI, this place is bound to be a goldmine as the area consists of vast land banks which are designed to cater the future developments. Seeing the potential of this place, the state government, as well as the relative authorities, are buckling up to match the standards with other major states of the country.

Greater Noida, a futuristic city in the making, is located at the intersection of the Western and Eastern Dedicated Freight Corridors. It rests within NCR and is adjacent to Noida, one of the largest industrial townships in Asia. Half an hour drive from Delhi, there exists an uncongested, pollution-free environment with world-class facilities for better living. Among them are reputed educational institutions, shopping centres, medical facilities, aesthetically developed theme parks and entertainment complexes and even a 222-acre international designer golf course.

Formally inaugurated on 09 August, 2012, by the Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mr Akhilesh Yadav, Yamuna Expressway Project costs approximately Rs. 13,000 crores.
