About the Project

Infocity County is a meticulously planned community, designed for a life of convenience and luxury. While our villas embody modern aesthetics and functional design, the heart of our community is the expansive 9,945 sq.ft. Club House and a wide array of amenities from a multipurpose hall to a cricket pitch and much more!

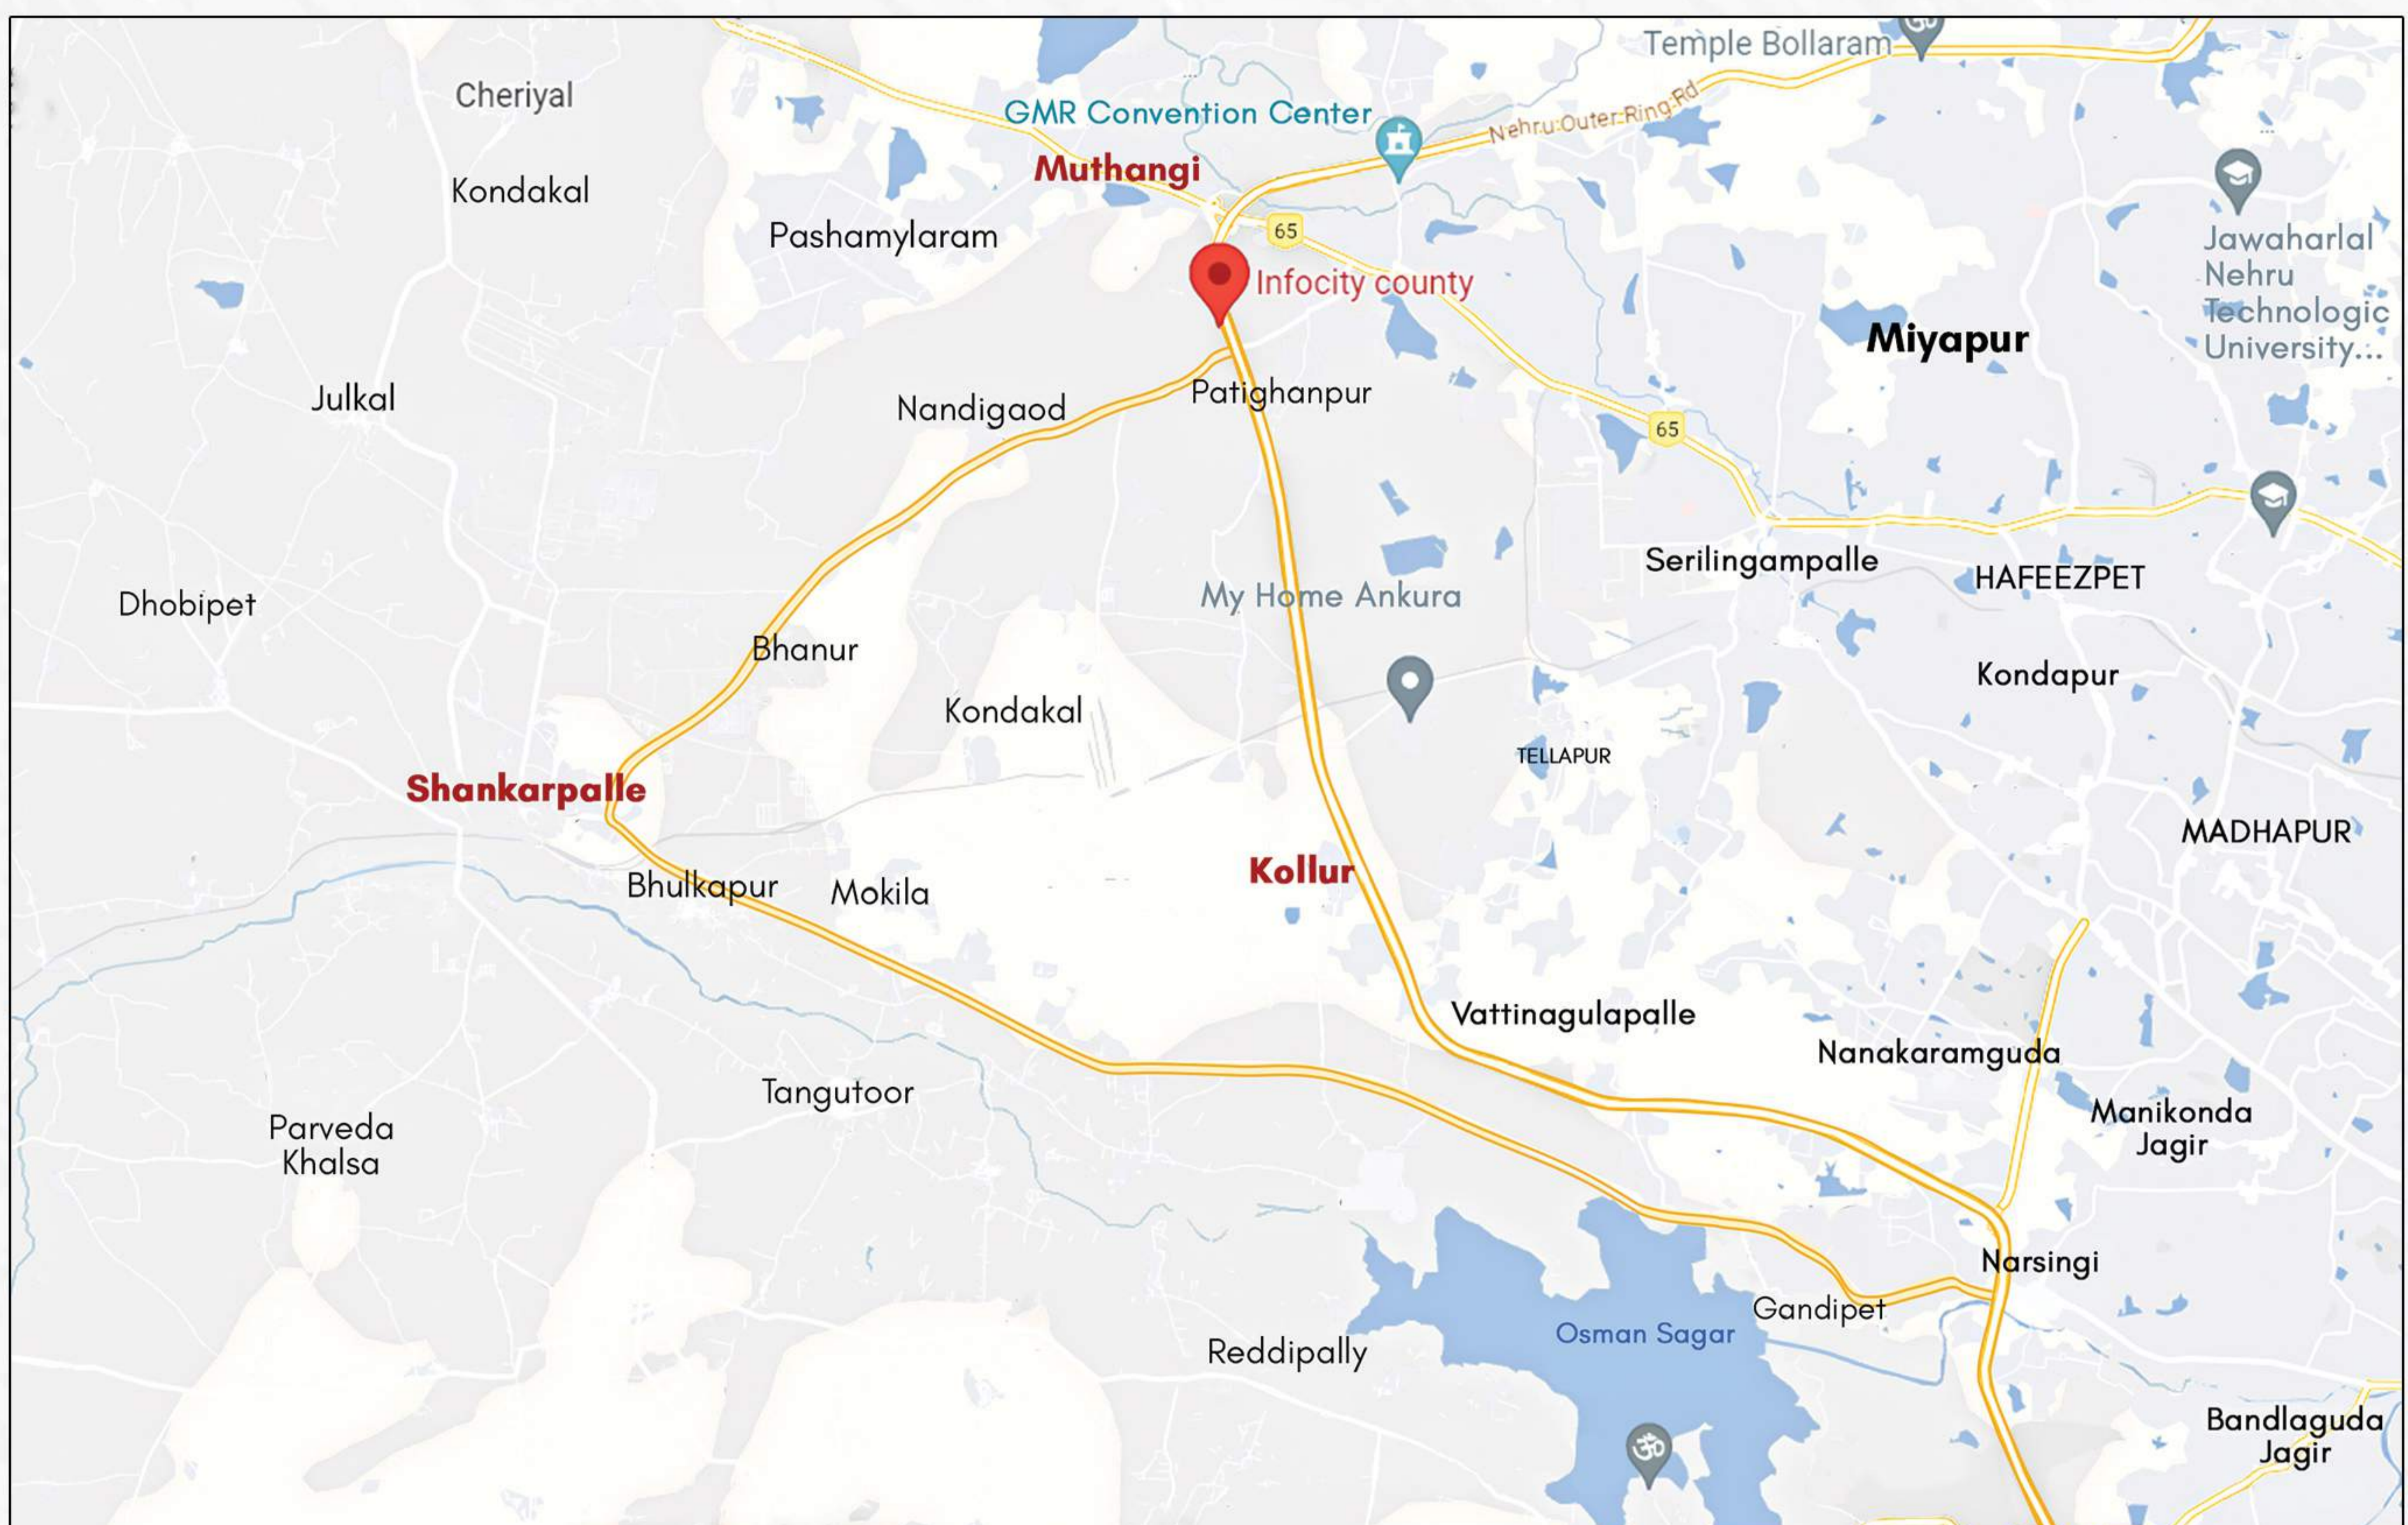

"Infocity County" is a thoroughly planned villa project that redefines modern living by seamlessly integrating convenience, comfort, and connectivity. Located in the heart of a thriving urban hub, this project offers a unique blend of features to enhance the quality of life for residents and businesses alike.

Location Highlights

"Infocity County " is not just a real estate project; it's a lifestyle choice. It's a place where residents can enjoy the convenience of urban living, the comfort of well-designed spaces, and the connectivity that keeps them connected to both their professional and personal networks. It's where convenience, comfort, and connectivity converge to create a thriving and harmonious community.
